This poem is inspired by the workshop - Disarming Dialogues: Reviving Humanities in Medical Education - conducted in November 2016 at the University of Chicago center in Delhi.

The workshop is a collaboration between the Medical Humanities Group, University College of Medical Sciences, University of Delhi, and Bucksbaum Institute for Clinical Excellence, University of Chicago, Illinois.

I laughed and I cried.

I saw and I was blind;
I talked and I was silent;
I pushed and I pulled.

I grew younger and I turned old;
I was timid and I was bold.

I acted and I watched;
I worked and I played;
I touched and I kept distance.

I lived and I died.
I laughed and I cried.
